In Memoriam of Professor Vladimir Larin

Vladimir Borisovich Larin, a chief researcher at the Department of Dynamics of Complex Systems at the S.P.Timoshenko Institute of Mechanics of the National Academy of Sciences of Ukraine, passed away after a long illness on February 28, 2022. V.B. Larin was one of the founders of the Applied and Computational Mathematics an International Journal and the International Conference on Control Optimization with Industrial Applications.

He was a co-Editor-in-Chief of ACM since the first day of it is foundation, and was always done his bests to contribute to its development and popularization among the specialists on applied and computational mathematics.

V.B. Larin was a member of the National Committee of Ukraine on Theoretical and Applied Mechanics, the National Committee of the Ukrainian Association of Automatic Control, and the American Mathematical Society. V.B. Larin was a well-known specialist in the field of control, optimization, system theory, numerical analysis, matrix theory, mechanics, robust stability analysis. He was an author of more than 400 scientific papers, including 20 monographs.

We will always feel the lack of very kind person, talented scientist. He will live forever in the memory of people who knew him well.
